Students not pursuing a degree or certificate at GRC are typically not eligible to receive financial aid. However, if you are enrolled in GRC courses for the purpose of admission into a specific program at GRC or another college/university, you may be eligible to receive a Direct Stafford Loan and/or a Parent PLUS loan.

Under the preparatory coursework agreement, the US Department of Education does allow the student:

- To receive only one consecutive 12-month period of federal loan eligibility. (You may be required to provide documentation from prior schools that you have never received this type of loan before)
- To receive a limited amount of federal loans, depending on their academic pursuit. See the table below for specific amounts:

- To receive any federal grant or work-study funding.
- To receive loans for preparatory coursework courses taken for the purpose of raising the GPA.
- To receive loans from more than one college during the same period of enrollment.

Student's Agreement and Self-Certification:

- Along with this form, I will submit to the Financial Aid Office documentation of the specific courses required for admission to my chosen program of study at the school I plan to attend. (This can often be found on the website for the program you plan on transferring in to)
- I will have a Green River College advisor complete an academic plan on page 2 of this form.
- I will be enrolled at least ½ time per quarter (6 credit hours) in coursework required for admission to the intended academic program.
- I will meet Green River's Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy each quarter to continue receiving the loan
- The courses taken will follow the plan created on page 2 by my GRC advisor.

I wish to apply for a Federal Direct Loan to help defray the costs of my preparatory coursework. I have read and understand the information provided on this form, and agree to abide by the terms and conditions set forth. I further understand that if I receive Federal Direct Loan funding for preparatory coursework, I am responsible for the satisfactory repayment of the Federal Direct Loan in its entirety. I also certify that I have never received a preparatory coursework loan before.

I have read and understand the information provided above regarding the Preparatory Coursework Agreement. I understand that final approval for financial aid is contingent upon review by the Financial Aid Office.
