CLASS TYPE DEFINITION

As you view the class schedule, you'll see classes are designated in one of three ways: virtual, hybrid/virtual, or online. The following definitions explain the how each type of course will be delivered:

- VIRTUAL: Class will meet online at the time listed in the class schedule. For example, if your class begins at 9 a.m. in the class schedule, then it will begin at 9 a.m. on Zoom. You will be attending the class at the same time as your classmates, just as you would on campus.
- HYBRID/VIRTUAL: Part of the class will be held online without a set time to attend. The other part will occur at the time listed in a virtual format (e.g. Zoom).
- ONLINE: The entire class will be held online without a set time to attend. The class will still have assignment deadlines and due dates.

Payment is due upon registration. If you withdraw less than three business days before your first class, do not attend, or stop attending, you will not receive a refund. A full refund is given if the college cancels a class. Questions? Contact us at 253-333-6030.

Madison Tovar

Madison's discovery of ceramics began when she took a beginning course in 2016. Since then she has found a way to incorporate clay into her life regardless of life's hurdles. She has two Art associate degrees from Green River College. In her free time, she volunteers at Green River College ceramics lab and takes independent study courses to further her knowledge. Madison believes learning the fundamentals of ceramics can help people accept the realities of life. There are moments of greatness and thrill, but also moments to be learned from and move head on. The beauty of art means creating pieces that are unique to you and bring you joy. One of the greatest joys in life is to make something with your own hands. Madison currently lives in Auburn, WA where she is building her home studio to jump start her business. She has taught ceramics at Redmond Artworks and also to those in the community studio at school. Madison's most recent work focuses on being ok with taking up space and being proud of it.
