Intended Program Transfer College/University

If you're not aiming to earn a degree or certificate at GRC, you usually can't get financial aid. But if you're taking GRC classes to get into a specific program at GRC or another college, you might qualify for a Direct Stafford Loan or a Parent PLUS loan.

With the preparatory coursework agreement, the US Department of Education allows students to:

- Get federal loans for only one consecutive 12-month period. (You might need to show paperwork from other schools saying you've never gotten this loan before)
- Get a certain amount of federal loans, depending on what you're studying. These amounts are:

		Add'l Unsubsidized: $ 6,000
		Total: $11,500

Under the preparatory coursework agreement, the US Department of Education does NOT allow the student to:

- Receive any federal grant or work-study funding.
- Receive loans for preparatory coursework courses taken for the purpose of raising the GPA.
- Receive loans from more than one college during the same period of enrollment.

Student's Agreement and Self-Certification:

- With this form, I'll give the Financial Aid Office information showing the classes I need to get into the program I want at the school I'm planning to go to. (You can usually find this info on the program's website)
- I will have a Green River College advisor complete the academic plan on page 2 of this form and only take those classes.
- I will take at least 6 credits I need to get into the program I want each quarter.
- I'll keep up with Green River's Satisfactory Academic Progress policy so I can keep getting the loan.

I want to apply for a Federal Direct Loan to help pay for my preparatory classes. I have read and understood all the information on this form, and I agree to follow the terms and conditions. I know that if I get this loan for preparatory classes, I have to pay it back on time and in full. I also certify that I have never gotten this kind of loan for prep classes before. I have read and understood everything about the Preparatory Coursework Agreement. I know that the Financial Aid Office has to check everything before I can get this aid.
